

Japanese Relocation

Name: _____

1. Write a letter to President Roosevelt supporting or opposing the use of relocation camps.

2. What alternatives to Japanese-American relocation camps do you think President Roosevelt should have tried?

3. Can you identify other times in history when fear and hatred have led to the unfair treatment of a specific group of people? Is there any place in the world where this is happening now?

4. Place a check mark next to each of the human rights identified by the United Nations that were denied to the Japanese- Americans by being placed in relocation camps.

- | | |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Freedom from slavery | <input type="checkbox"/> Right to work |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Right to education | <input type="checkbox"/> Right to adequate standard of living |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Freedom from torture or degrading punishment | <input type="checkbox"/> Right to life, liberty, and the security of a person |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Freedom of movement | <input type="checkbox"/> Right to privacy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Right to take part in government | <input type="checkbox"/> Right to hold meetings |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Freedom of religion | |

- Right to rest