

Great Britain - Evacuation of Children

Name: _____

1. Do you think your parents would have sent you and your siblings away if you were living in London during World War II? Why?

2. How would you have felt leaving your family to go live with strangers for who knows how long in order to keep you safe?

3. What other ways besides sending their children away for strangers to care for do you think parents could have kept their children safe while Great Britain was being bombed by the Germans?