

Fighting Sisters

(Girls are yelling at each other)

Mom: What is going on?

Sister 1: She wore my new sweater without asking.

Sister 2: But, I wanted to wear it to school today.

Sister 1: I don't care. You should have asked.

Sister 1: Well, if I had asked you wouldn't have let me wear it.

Mom: Hold on. We can settle this. What's the rule about sharing clothes?

Sisters: Always ask first.

Sister 1: But, she never lets me wear her stuff.

Mom: It is her sweater, but wouldn't it be nice to share, sister?

Sister 2: I know I should share.

Mom: You may need your sister to help you one day.

Sister 1: I'm sorry I took your sweater. Can I wear it to the program at school next week?

Sister 2: Okay, you can wear it.

(Sisters hug)