

Helping Grandpa

(Kids are playing in the house and hear Grandpa on the back porch)

1st Kid: I hear Grandpa on the porch.

2nd Kid: What's he doing out there? I thought his back was hurting.

3rd Kid: It is hurting. Mom said she is taking him to the doctor tomorrow.

1st Kid: Let's go see what he's doing.

2nd Kid: Okay, let's go.

(Kids go to the porch and see Grandpa trying to reach the dog food on the top shelf)

3rd Kid: Grandpa, what are you doing?

1st Kid: The dogs have to be fed. I'm getting the dog food.

2nd Kid: Your back is hurt. You shouldn't be doing that.

3rd Kid: Well, the dogs need food.

1st Kid: We'll do it, Grandpa. Go back and sit in your chair.

2nd Kid: Come on, Grandpa, I'll help you back to the chair.

(1st Kid and 3rd Kid get a stool and get the dog food while 2nd Kid helps Grandpa)
