

Date: Tue, 19 Feb 2008 22:29:36 -0800 (PST)

Subject: Re: Birds of prey: Indonesia

To: <ktes2008@yahoo.com>

1. What is your name? T. Mohd. Sanir
2. If you have a job title, what is it? no
3. What is the name of your organization and country? Cicem Nanggroe
4. Based on numbers, what would you say are the top 5 raptors in your area? Haliastur indus, Ictinaetus malayensis, Spizaetus cirrhatus, Haliaeetus leucogaster, Accipiter badius, and Butastur indicus
5. Are there any endangered raptors in your area? If so, which ones are they and why are they endangered? no
6. Are there any programs in your area that help to protect raptors? If yes, briefly tell us what they are. No.
7. Is your organization funded by the government or private donations? If neither, from what source is funding received? private donation
8. Does your government recognize the importance of maintaining/improving the status of birds of prey? If so, in what way do they support it? yes, but only a little attention
9. Do you have programs to educate the public? If yes, what kinds or please give examples. yes, for the first step we do in our campus at veterinary faculty and spread it to people in our area by our blog at www.cicemnanggroe.wordpress.com
10. Is there anything else that you would like to share or comment on about raptors in your area? yes, there's very little information about endemic raptor in our area, simeulue island we suggest have a great chance to be an endemic site of raptor.
11. May we have permission to print this email interview on our website? yes

Date:	Mon, 18 Feb 2008 02:45:04 -0800 (PST)
From:	"gunawan thok"
Subject:	Re: Birds of prey: Indonesia
To:	<ktes2008@yahoo.com>

1. What is your name? Gunawan
2. If you have a job title, what is it? I'm a koordinator of animal team.
3. What is the name of your organization and country? International Animal Rescue Indonesia
4. Based on numbers, what would you say are the top 5 raptors in your area? There are Spilornis cheela (Serpent's eagle), Spizaetus cirrhatus (Changeable hawk eagle), Haliaeetus leucogaster (White ballied sea eagle), Ichtinaetus malayensis (Indian black eagle) and Spizaetus bartelsi (Javan hawk eagle).
5. Are there any endangered raptors in your area? If so, which ones are they and why are they endangered? yes. Javan hawk eagle is an endemic and endangered species in my area
6. Are there any programs in your area that help to protect raptors? If yes, briefly tell us what they are. yes. many organization that try to protect the species and their habitat.
7. Is your organization funded by the government or private donations? If neither, from what source is funding received? My organization is funded by another organization. The name of organization funding is International Animal Rescue that base in UK.
8. Does your government recognize the importance of maintaining/improving the status of birds of prey? If so, in what way do they support it? yes. they made laws of protecting all raptors in Indonesia.
9. Do you have programs to educate the public? If yes, what kinds or please give examples. yes, we have. We do public awareness around the release location before we release the animals. include the raptors. We made posters, leaflet or call people/children to aware by educational programme.
10. Is there anything else that you would like to share or comment on about raptors in your area? Raptors is one of important animal in my area. we must to do something so they can still exist. But we need support from every body to do this.
11. May we have permission to print this email interview on our website? Yes, of course.